| Phillip W. Dunn, Petitioner, v. Ken Clark, Warden, Respondent | 08-0485 BTM (JMA) Petitioner's motion for The Appointment of Counsel |

The Honorable Judge J. Adler

I would ask the court to appoint a lawyer for me in this case for the following reasons. I am an ADA Inmate who suffers from a multitude of medical problems many of which preclude me from being able to provide a reasonable level of legal accumen to these proceeding. As you can tell I am not well versed in the local rules or exactly how to proceed on my own. You rejected my first motion I do not really understand why as I did serve the Attorney General with a copy of the same pleading I sent to the court. My current condition is extemely adverse. I do not have access to legal tomes or a way to find the cases I need to present my case to the court.

Respectfully Submitted
